Born in Baghdad and rooted in the Sufi tradition of Islam, Dr Fawzia Al-Rawi Al-Rifai has been accompanying people on the spiritual path for more than thirty years.

Her work is an invitation to return to the heart—to remember Allah's mercy and love, to meet life with dignity, and to transform fear into faith.

Through Sufi wisdom, Quranic guidance, remembrance and embodied practice, she guides the heart from knowledge into presence, from separation into remembrance, and from restlessness into trust, love and surrender.

Prayer can become a place of return, a moment in which the scattered self becomes still and the heart remembers its Sustainer.

With Fawzia Al-Rawi, we will explore prayer as presence, remembrance and listening. Throughout the retreat, the Hadra Ensemble will become an essential companion to the journey, using rhythm, voice and sacred music to open inner spaces, awaken longing and carry the heart beyond words.

Music will accompany the teachings, meditations and moments of prayer, responding to the needs and rhythm of the group.

A week of prayer, silence, music and movement: from restlessness to presence, from longing to remembrance.
